

Summary of Sermon

John Alley has an apostolic ministry - more information at <https://www.peace.org.au> - and spoke on key aspects of the apostolic reformation happening across the world today:

- love and unity among the whole church in a city.

The two podcasts are two halves of the message.

“The ultimate purpose of Pentecost was to cause us to be one.” One aspect of this is that the Lord’s Supper/Holy Communion/Breaking Bread is a participation in the Body of Christ. Jesus died so that we (His Body - the whole church in a region not just one congregation) might become whole or one (united).

Questions

First, how have we all been able to BLESS this week?

1. Why is it so significant that love is the main emphasis of the New Testament?
2. Does love mean overlooking differences? When should we forgive quietly and when should we confront behaviour that is not godly? When should we ignore differences of views and when should we explore differences?
3. Do we need to prepare ourselves for a time of Breaking Bread together? If so how should we?
