

John Wesley was hugely influential in the Christian history of this nation and in calming the political turmoil which at the time threatened to destabilize it. There are lessons to be learned from our great predecessors.

God has spoken to All Nations in recent years: He has a big role for us in the coming great harvest, both in the UK and beyond.

We need to:

- Live in the fullness of the Holy Spirit, keeping our eyes on Jesus, seeking God alone and must not get stuck in the rut of the work for its own sake.
- Live in community. No-one can serve God entirely on their own.
- Be committed to prayer for revival.

SHARE your story of salvation and new life in Christ: our lives matter to other people's lives.

1. Conviction of holiness, faith and salvation were there in the early years of John Wesley's career, but he didn't just stop there in his journey with God. How did he go on to "work out" his salvation?
2. What do you think John Wesley had in his mind when he was threatened, assaulted and rejected for his preaching? How did he overcome those obstacles?
3. Relationship with God and God's people is essential to the life of the church. Discuss the ways in which this church family has developed in order to house the great harvest that God has said will come. Also what else do we need to do or develop further?
