

On Sunday we experienced and heard of some of the new things that God is doing amongst us.

Pastor Steve said that having a vision of eternity keeps us from getting wound up by what's happening in the world. See Psalm 73 and the book of Job. But we often battle against distractions that would take our eyes off God and away from Him.

When we're not in control of situations we often feel weak, vulnerable and uncomfortable, but being in dependence upon God is a good place to allow God's will to be done and when Jesus comes, nothing else matters.

Here is a summary of some of what God has been saying recently:

"Jesus-came-served-suffered-exalted"
 "hear-obey-surrender-submit-to-God"
 "Jesus-Lord-and-king"
 "prayer-at-the-hub"
 "Jesus-first-and-centre"
 "return-to-first-love"
 "not-a-negotiation-or-compromise"
 "be-ready"
 first-commandment
 "Love-God"

Steve has recorded a short video of our All Nation vision and values:

Now is a great time to remind ourselves of what keeps us steadfast with God.

QUESTIONS

1. When church services follow a usual routine we might often respond in familiar ways, but when God begins to act in less usual ways, are less than usual responses right?
2. In the natural physical world, fire needs air, fuel and a spark to ignite and keep going; any lack of these stops it.
In the spiritual realm, which attitudes keep the spiritual fire going and which would put it out?
3. You invite a friend, colleague or neighbour to one of our services and they become uncomfortable with how "unconventional" it is.
Does that matter? Could inviting them to life group help them?

Memory verse Revelation 3:20 "Here I am! I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears my voice and opens the door, I will come in and eat with that person, and they with me."
