

Steve Clifford is from the Evangelical Alliance (EA), which works for UK evangelical Christians: representing, promoting and facilitating our unity in faith in Jesus.

Hebrews 10.19-25; starts with a “therefore,” summing up the nine chapters before it that declare Jesus, the sacrifice He made on the cross and the atonement made in heaven that are central to our faith and empower us to endure in the faith.

In a world of uncertainty this is a time of great opportunity; not to be fearful but to be full of faith. We have a certainty of hope in Christ that all people need.

So, let us

- draw near to God
- be enthusiastic in our love for each other
- hold on to faith and hope

QUESTIONS

1. How important to you is teaching the fundamental facts of faith in Jesus to a new generation of Christians?
2. Steve asked about our diets in-between church meetings: do we “feed” on hope or doubts? Which spiritual disciplines do you employ throughout the week?
3. Read Hebrews 11.33 through to 12.2. How does this make you feel about your faith and what do we learn here about endurance and perseverance in the faith?

Memory verse

Hebrews 12.1-2 : Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us also lay aside every weight and the sin that clings closely, and let us run with perseverance the race that is set before us, looking to Jesus the pioneer and perfecter of our faith, who for the sake of the joy that was set before him endured the cross, disregarding its shame, and has taken his seat at the right hand of the throne of God.
